Christian Development Group - Brockton

Topic: Digging Deep

Every Christian's desire is to hear God's voice. To hear it you have to first know it and to know it you have to first understand it. God still speaks audibly, but you have to know His written word before you get to hear His still small voice. You want to be fruitful? Come and experience Him and mature for use in His Kingdom. This group will be held every Monday

Kingdom Women: Woman to Woman Group

Topic: Discover Freedom in the Kingdom

This group will be discussing how women can be consistent in their relationship with the Lord. Through the journey, we found five main areas of struggle for women in today's world. What we have found is no secret at all and there is no formula. There is only the invitation to welcome Him into a lasting relationship. Kingdom Women Group will help you discover your unique design, remove the barriers that keep you from letting go, unveil the power of your words while creating a love for God. Join us as we build authentic Godly relationships.

Men Under Authority

Topic: Freedom from your Past

The Men Under Authority connect group aims to liberate young men from the secular trappings of manhood through a biblical understanding of manhood, purpose, and submission. A complete rethinking and redefining of what it means to be a man. Just as the Centurion understood the principle of power through submission, Men Under Authority will be liberated, strengthened, empowered and blessed beyond measure by their submission to the authority of Christ in their lives.

The Real Women

Real women are women who have the fear of God, are sold out to God and hungry to know God more. Women who desire to build real relationships with God, are obedient to God and are willing to do His will.

Real women is also for women who are interested in building a great relationship with their spouse, by being a help meet and companion to their husband. Real Women are not just good mothers, but godly mothers to their children, and desire to raise and nurture godly children for God. Real Women are also ready to make an impact in their community, nation and their world.
